

EXHIBIT L

My comment on the proposed claims process is that any unclaimed sites should be offered to contract holders, such as myself, who were never assigned a site. I'd be willing to forgo participation in recovered funds in exchange for one or more sites with a great enough value. I'd like to be able to submit a list of sites I'm interested in and see the traffic analytics and revenue history before I made a final determination.

Regards,

